

Leys

You Can Keep Up To Date By Buying a

Sterling Silver Waist Set

COMBINATION SET.

STERLING 925 / 1000 FINE.

Strong, Heavy and Durable, price complete, only

$1.00

And a Sterling Silver Mounted Belt. We have them in all the styles and designs made upwards from

$1.50

Leys

JEWELER
and
OPTICIAN

OWSLEY
BLOCK
— BUTTE

Gallogly & Co.

About
Bathing

Do you know about the LOOFA?
It is used in bathing instead of a brush, sponges or rag, and while outlasting these, it cleanses better and gives the skin a healthy glow.
For the week we offer Loofas at 15 Cents Each

MOTH BALLS

Now is the time to pack away your furs. We have an ample supply of MOTH BALLS, price 25 Cents a Pound.

WE SELL

STREET CAR TICKETS

E. E. GALLOGLY & CO.

DRUGGISTS

12 N. Main St. Owsley Block

FILLED CHEESE BILL

It Passes the Senate After Many Motions and Much Debate.

CAN'T AGREE ON WAR SHIPS

Partial Report on the Indian Bill Was Agreed To—Fur Seals, Pacific Railways and Funding Bills Considered.

Washington, June 4.—The conference report on the naval appropriation bill was taken up in the senate to-day, the pending question being Quay's motion that the senate recede from its amendment reducing the number of battleships from four to two.

Gorman said two questions were involved. One was, was it wise to order four battleships when defects in those already built had been disclosed and when the board was in session considering improvements in construction; the other was as to the expediency of this large expenditure at a time of financial stringency. "I am always in favor of a fair increase in the navy," said Gorman, "but I am utterly opposed to building four ships, considering the condition of the treasury and the improvements being made in naval construction." The senator spoke for the charges made by Chandler, Tillman and other senators that the manufacturers were robbing the government unmercifully. If this charge was true, the officers of the government were not doing right in not reporting the fact to congress, and the work of shipbuilding should be stopped.

Gorman did not believe any investigation had shown that Secretary Whitney or Secretary Tracy, two great secretaries of the navy, who contracted with Carnegie and the Bethlehem works, made improvident agreements.
To-day the United States stood ahead of the world in its product or armor, speed of ships and perfection of its navy.

Chandler asserted that information before the naval committee showed the cost of production of armor plate at the Carnegie and Bethlehem works was less than $300 a ton, and that, by a combination, the price charged the government was $500 and $600 a ton.

Quay's motion to recede from the battleship reduction amendment was defeated, 17 to 33, as follows: Yeas, republicans—Aldrich, Brown, Carter, Davis, Dubois, Gear, Hansbrough, Hawley, Lodge, McBride, Mitchell, Perkins, Platt, Quay, Shoup, Wilson. Democrats—Morgan, Nays, republicans—Allison, Chandler, Clark, Gallinger, Hall, Morrill, Nelson, Pettigrew, Prichard, Sherman, Teller, Warren. Democrats—Bate, Berry, Chilton, Cockrell, George, Gorman, Harris, Hill, Jones, (Ark.) Lindsay, Mills, Palmer, Pasco, Pugh, Smith, Vest, Vilas, Walthall, White. Populists—Butler, Peffer. Total, 33.

The effect of the vote was to emphasize the disagreement between the house and senate, the former insisting on four, the latter on two battleships.
The items of ships and armor were committed again to conference.

A partial conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was agreed to, 22 to 20. It covers the plan of establishing Indian citizenship in Indian Territory, to be executed by the Dawes commission. The report has been considered several days. Pettigrew of South Dakota, in charge of the Indian bill, then sought to have the remaining items, including that of Indian schools, sent back to conference. Lodge of Massachusetts moved to recede from the senate amendment on sectarian schools.
The house suspended the appropriations to sectarian schools, but the senate amendment gave until July 1, 1893, for the change. The motion to recede was defeated, yeas, 17; nays, 31, as follows: Yeas, republicans—Brown, Chandler, Clark, Dubois, Gallinger, Lodge, Mitchell of Oregon, Morrill, Platt, Sewell, Teller, Warren, Wilson.
Democrat—George. Populist—Butler.
Nays, republicans—Allison, Carter, Davis, Hansbrough, Hawley, McBride, Pettigrew, Sherman, Shoup. Democrats—Bate, Berry, Chilton, Cockrell, Faulkner, Gorman, Harris, Hill, Jones of Arkansas, Lindsay, Mills, Mitchell, Morgan, Pasco, Pugh, Smith, Turpie, Vest, Vilas, Walthall, White.

A bill was then passed granting a right-of-way through the Fort Bliss military reservation to the El Paso & Northeastern Railroad company.

The request of Morgan, his resolution calling on the president for information as to what, if any, demand should be made in the case of the Competitor, seized by Spaniards, went over till to-morrow.

A joint resolution was reported by Morrill, from the finance committee, and passed, authorizing a scientific inquiry into the condition of fur seals in the North Pacific. The resolution appropriates $5,000 for the inquiry and authorizes the president to detail government officials to conduct the inquiry.

Gear, chairman of the Pacific railways committee, rose to make a statement as to the Union and Central Pacific funding bill. He said $115,000,000 was due the government and the debt would mature at an early date. It was incumbent on congress to take some action to protect the interests of the government. For this reason he moved the funding bill now on the calendar be taken up at the next session and made the continuous order of business until action was secured. Morgan, who made the minority report on the bill, said he favored the motion. The subject ought to be disposed of at the December session, as it was of great importance.

Berry of Arkansas objected to any agreement and raised the point of quorum. Before a quorum could be summoned, the morning hour expired and the filled cheese bill was taken up.
Gear stated he would renew his motion to-morrow.

Vest spoke in opposition to the bill.
He said the oleomargarine law had turned out to the benefit of Messrs.
Nelson, Morris and Armour, who added the oleomargarine tax to the products sold to poor people, and this law would operate in the same way. Vest proposed two amendments, viz.: That the measure should not be taken to extend the police power of the federal government so as to conflict with the police power of the states, and that skimmed cheese from skim milk be

ONE FOR SIR WALTER

Taral Brings the Horse to Victory in the Brooklyn Handicap.

CLIFFORD COMES SECOND

The Distance, a Mile and a Quarter, Made in 2:08 1/2—The Crowd Goes Wild With Enthusiasm—Other Races.

New York, June 4.—Three times has the gallant and game Sir Walter tried to win the Brooklyn handicap and at last he has been successful. That it was a popular victory could not be doubted, for from the time he poked his nose into the lead to the last fraction of a second of the race there was one wild yell for Sir Walter. It was not the cry of the betting man, for the horse was by no means a favorite, but it was the cheer of encouragement from the sport-loving American citizens, 20-000 being at the Gravesend track to watch the contest. The cheer that had followed the victory were redoubled when Sir Walter returned to weigh in,
and as Taral was hoisted into the floral jockey's chair, where he has sat so many times in his career, he was a very happy person, as the yells resounded through the air and the immense body of spectators gave vent to their feelings in shouts, catcalls and whistles. A more perfect day for the race could not have been desired.
About an hour before the time for the first race the people began to arrive in droves, and they surged around the entrances, which were much too small to admit them as rapidly as they came.
Congestion set in and for a full hour the struggling mass of humanity was pouring into the enclosure. When the first race was run the rush was about over, and by 2 o'clock all but a few belated ones had arrived.

Delays at the start made the handicap very late, and it was 4:25 o'clock when the eight contestants went to the post. None of them were noticed until Clifford appeared and he was applauded well, as was St. Maxim. The cheer was doubled as Sir Walter, with Taral up, went past the grand stand to the elbow in the track which marked the start. After the time reached the post there was a long delay, for Counter Tenor was fractious. Four breakaways came, in which one wing or another was left and had to go back.
The fifth and sixth were excellent, but for Counter Tenor, who stood still at the post. A short delay then gave the jockeys a chance to steady their mounts and 30 minutes after they went away. Flynn caught them in good line and a red flag flashed, the immense crowd rose to their feet with the cry "they're off!" and then eight highly-bred animals began the journey of a mile and a quarter at the end of which was a purse of $5,000 for the winner.

The crowd from the start at the post observed the vision for an instant and they swept around the turn into the stretch with Sir Walter showing the way, followed by St. Maxim, Lake Shore, Keenan, Hornpipe, Clifford, Nanki Pook and Counter Tenor. The jockeys settled down in their places, and as they passed the timing stand for the first time, with one quarter of a mile run in 0:25, Lake Shore was the pilot, a neck in front of Sir Walter, he half a length ahead of Hornpipe, Keenan a half behind, and a half length in front of St. Maxim, the others trailing.
The pace was slow, for each one of the lot was rating along comfortably, each jockey picking his way and waiting patiently for the end. There was no crowding around the turn, each jockey giving the others a wide berth, and the furlong around the oval was one of the fastest of the race, being run in 0:25, the leaders not changing their relative positions although they drew away from the field a couple of lengths, while St. Maxim took third place with Hornpipe fourth, Nanki Pook and Clifford next, side by side, and Keenan back, with Counter Tenor in the last position.

As they straightened out on the back stretch, the leaders were still rating along well in hand, while St.
Maxim and Hornpipe were side by side as before, with no change in the rear division, the four furlongs being made in :13 1/2. As they ran up the back-stretch they all felt the steel and began to move faster. Lake Shore was the first to feel the effect of this urging and Sir Walter's nose began to forge in front. Inch by inch the black muzzle began to show ahead and the first four were running so close together that a blanket would have covered them, for St. Maxim had cut the lead over him down to a head, while Hornpipe was gaining running well behind him, the four not changing their relative positions. The five-furlong post was reached in :12 1/2, the half in that order, but the spurt had been too much for Lake Shore, who then dropped back in seventh place, fighting for the last position with Counter Tenor, who was running like a cat. Keenan, too, was cut of it and from that time on the three took little interest in the contest.

After leaving the five-eighths pole the race began in earnest and with a little urging Sir Walter shot away from the others to get a good position to round the upper turn. He was a length and a half away before Sims took St.
Maxim in hand and sent him after Taral and his mount. In five seconds both were going at about the same rate of speed, only daylight between them.
Hornpipe was still pegging away in third place, but Nanki Pook and Clifford had come up a little. The time to the three quarters was 1:13, the last furlong being run in :13. As they rushed around the long upper turn, the pace quickened and Sir Walter took a still larger lead from St. Maxim, while he,
in turn, held his half length lead on Clifford and the crowd shouted in glee at the finish of Sir Walter. There was much disappointment over the showing of Clifford, who did not seem able to get up with the leaders and seemed ready to quit. It was enough to try any horse, for 12 1/2 seconds was the time of the last furlong and there were still three furlongs to go.

At the mile pole, which was reached in 1:42 1/2, the leaders were still running well in spite of the demands upon them and willing to stand the drive which was sure to come. Taral was the first

FROM OLD VIRGINIA

The Silver Democrats Have It All
Their Own Way.

IN THE KENTUCKY CLASS

Senator Daniel Repeatedly Complimented—Delegates Instructed to Vote for Men Who Are for Free Coinage.

Staunton, Va., June 4.—Chairman Ellison called the democratic state convention to order and named J. Bell Bigger of Richmond for temporary chairman. Bigger paid a compliment to Senator Daniel. The committee on resolutions is composed almost entirely of free silver men. Senator Daniel was made permanent chairman, and the convention took a recess to 3:30.

Immediately upon the reassembling of the convention, Major Woods of Albemarle was made chairman. He addressed the convention briefly. The masses were aroused, said he, and they intended to restore silver to its proper place in our currency system.

While waiting for the committee on credentials to report, ex-Congressman Marshall and Thomas H. Martin addressed that body. The latter called Cleveland a wrecker of his party. The silver men cheered and the gold men hissed.

Congressman Tucker followed. He said: "There is in the white house a big man. (Cheers and hisses.) While I do not agree with all Cleveland has done, I tell you he is an honest man." Senator Daniel read the majority report of the resolutions committee. It deprecates the "growing influence of trusts," declares for tariff tax for revenue, limited to the necessities of an economically administered government, and opposes a third term of the presidential office. The financial plank is substantially as follows:

"We are for sound money; the soundest that the world has ever had or can have; that sound money to consist of silver and of paper, redeemable in silver or gold, at the option of the government, the units of the whole mass to be kept at parity by coinage rights and equal tender functions, the only method by which the parity of the two metals has been continuously and successfully maintained. The immediate and complete restoration of the bimetal-lic system of money which existed in the United States from 1793 to 1873 is, in our opinion, demanded by the interests of commerce, manufacturers and agriculture, which are alike suffering from a continuous fall of prices and the consequent embarrassment or bankruptcy of those engaged therein; and in order to so restore it, we demand the free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the assent or concurrence of any other nation.

"We hereby instruct all of the delegates from Virginia to the national convention to vote for a platform declaring for the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1 and for candidates for president and vice president who openly will advocate that principle."

The majority report was adopted as it came from the committee. The convention then took a recess until 9 p. m.

At the evening session the unit rule was adopted and a resolution passed declaring the democrats of Virginia would hail the nomination of Senator Daniel as one of the candidates of the party on the national ticket. The delegates at large are: John W. Daniel, W. A. Jones, Claud W. Swanson and H. S. K. Morrison.

NORTH DAKOTA.

The Silver Wave Completely Submerges
the Democratic Convention.

Jamestown, N. D., June 4.—The democratic state convention in this city to-day, John Hill of Rolla was made chairman of the convention. The chair appointed a committee of seven on resolutions. The committee reported resolutions favoring the free coinage of both gold and silver, which was adopted. The following delegates to the Chicago convention were elected: Senator Rich Williams, J. H. Hill, R.
Hastman, Fuson of Ramsey, Wilson of Pembina.

On motion the delegates were instructed to vote for the free coinage of both gold and silver at 16 to 1 and to vote for a candidate for president who would stand on that platform.

The Oregon Election.

Portland, Ore., June 4.—Scattering returns and corrections received to-night reverse things and show that Ellis, republican, has a plurality of 65 over Quinn, populist, for congress in the Second district. Complete returns are still missing from three counties. In the First district a mistake was discovered to-day in the count in Yamhill county, which reduces Vandenberg's plurality, vote in that county by 208.
This, together with partial returns from Curry county, gives Vandenberg a plurality of 100 over Tongue, republican. In both districts it will undoubtedly require the official count to determine the result.

The count in this city was completed this afternoon. Penoyer, for mayor, has a plurality of 2,384 in a total vote of 15,273.

A COWBOY ROW.

One of the Men Draws a Knife and Cuts
His Fellow Ranger Rider.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.

Miles City, June 4.—A serious cutting affray occurred on the roundup on Powder river, which is liable to result in the death of Frank Devorek, who works for the "Y. T." outfit. J. Wells, a cowboy who works for the "Box T." outfit, got in an altercation with Devorek regarding the manner in which he was holding the horses, which, being on the range, were more or less troublesome. This ended in a bet that Wells could not do as well, when he assaulted Devorek and cut him in the abdomen letting his bowels protrude.
Drs. Redd and Andrus pronounce De-vork's condition as being very serious. Wells, after the cutting, mounted his horse and made his escape, but it is thought that he will be brought to justice.

ADVANCE IN PRICE

THE DEMAND FOR SILVER
AGITATES WALL STREET.

Predictions of a Sharp Rise in the Price of Metal Are Indulged In.

New York, June 4.—A question that is agitating many speculators in the street is the probable continuance of the recently revived activity and strength of silver certificates. Predictions of a sharp advance in the price of the metal are indulged in and bullion dealers hope for a recurrence of the movement that marked the year 1890.
It is reported that a considerable demand for the white metal has developed in Europe. It is understood this inquiry comes at the moment chiefly from France and in a lesser degree from Spain, for coinage purposes, and that orders have been received here, the bids being above the London parity.
Many smelters are said to have sold their product for three months ahead, and there is, comparatively speaking, only a light stock of bullion on hand.
The transactions in silver certificates upon the stock exchange to-day amounted to $296,000 at 69 3/4, making the aggregate dealings for the week thus far $408,000. Engagements of 700,000 ounces of silver have been made thus far for export on Saturday.

Crowned at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., June 4.—It has been feared that a large number of people reported missing from East St. Louis had found watery graves. It seems these fears are not unfounded, for in the past two days two bodies have been dragged from the Mississippi. A reward of $100 has been offered for the bodies of Morris Fisher of Hardin, Ill., and Sim Woods of St. Louis. The total amount of contributions so far received is $181,555.

ONE FOR SIR WALTER

Taral Brings the Horse to Victory in
the Brooklyn Handicap.

CLIFFORD COMES SECOND

The Distance, a Mile and a Quarter, Made in 2:08 1/2—The
Crowd Goes Wild With Enthusiasm—Other Races.

New York, June 4.—Three times has
the gallant and game Sir Walter tried
to win the Brooklyn handicap and at
last he has been successful. That it
was a popular victory could not be
doubted, for from the time he poked
his nose into the lead to the last frac-
tion of a second of the race there was
one wild yell for Sir Walter. It was
not the cry of the betting man, for the
horse was by no means a favorite, but it
was the cheer of encouragement from
the sport-loving American citizens, 20-000 being at the Gravesend track to watch the contest. The cheer that
had followed the victory were redoubled
when Sir Walter returned to weigh in,
and as Taral was hoisted into the
floral jockey's chair, where he has sat
so many times in his career, he was a
very happy person, as the yells re-
sounded through the air and the immense body of spectators gave vent to
their feelings in shouts, catcalls and
whistles. A more perfect day for the
race could not have been desired.
About an hour before the time for the
first race the people began to arrive in
droves, and they surged around the
entrances, which were much too small
to admit them as rapidly as they came.
Congestion set in and for a full hour
the struggling mass of humanity was
pouring into the enclosure. When the
first race was run the rush was about
over, and by 2 o'clock all but a few belated ones had arrived.

Delays at the start made the handi-
cap very late, and it was 4:25 o'clock
when the eight contestants went to the
post. None of them were noticed until
Clifford appeared and he was applauded
well, as was St. Maxim. The cheer
was doubled as Sir Walter, with Taral
up, went past the grand stand to the
elbow in the track which marked the
start. After the time reached the
post there was a long delay, for Counter Tenor was fractious. Four break-
aways came, in which one wing or
another was left and had to go back.
The fifth and sixth were excellent, but
for Counter Tenor, who stood still at
the post. A short delay then gave the
jockeys a chance to steady their
mounts and 30 minutes after they went
away. Flynn caught them in
good line and a red flag flashed, the
immense crowd rose to their feet with
the cry "they're off!" and then eight
highly-bred animals began the journey
of a mile and a quarter at the end of which was a purse of $5,000 for the winner.

The crowd from the start at the post
observed the vision for an instant and
they swept around the turn into the
stretch with Sir Walter showing the
way, followed by St. Maxim, Lake
Shore, Keenan, Hornpipe, Clifford,
Nanki Pook and Counter Tenor. The
jockeys settled down in their places,
and as they passed the timing stand
for the first time, with one quarter of a mile run in 0:25, Lake Shore was
the pilot, a neck in front of Sir Walter,
he half a length ahead of Hornpipe, Keen-
an a half behind, and a half length in front of St. Maxim, the others trailing.
The pace was slow, for each one of the
lot was rating along comfortably, each
jockey picking his way and waiting
patiently for the end. There was no
crowding around the turn, each jockey
giving the others a wide berth, and the
furlong around the oval was one of the
fastest of the race, being run in 0:25,
the leaders not changing their relative
positions although they drew away
from the field a couple of lengths, while
St. Maxim took third place with Horn-
pipe fourth, Nanki Pook and Clifford
next, side by side, and Keenan back,
with Counter Tenor in the last position.

As they straightened out on the
back stretch, the leaders were still rating along well in hand, while St.
Maxim and Hornpipe were side by side
as before, with no change in the rear
division, the four furlongs being made
in :13 1/2. As they ran up the back-
stretch they all felt the steel and began
to move faster. Lake Shore was the first to feel the effect of this urging and
Sir Walter's nose began to forge in
front. Inch by inch the black muzzle
began to show ahead and the first four
were running so close together that a
blanket would have covered them, for
St. Maxim had cut the lead over him
down to a head, while Hornpipe was
gaining running well behind him, the
four not changing their relative positions. The five-furlong post was reached
in :12 1/2, the half in that order, but
the spurt had been too much for Lake
Shore, who then dropped back in seventh place, fighting for the last position with Counter Tenor, who was running like a cat. Keenan, too, was cut
of it and from that time on the three
took little interest in the contest.

After leaving the five-eighths pole
the race began in earnest and with a little urging Sir Walter shot away from
the others to get a good position to round
the upper turn. He was a length and a half away before Sims took St.
Maxim in hand and sent him after
Taral and his mount. In five seconds
both were going at about the same rate
of speed, only daylight between them.
Hornpipe was still pegging away in
third place, but Nanki Pook and Clifford had come up a little. The time to the
three quarters was 1:13, the last fur-
long being run in :13. As they rushed
around the long upper turn, the pace
quickened and Sir Walter took a still
larger lead from St. Maxim, while he,
in turn, held his half length lead on
Clifford and the crowd shouted in glee
at the finish of Sir Walter. There was
much disappointment over the showing
of Clifford, who did not seem able to
get up with the leaders and seemed
ready to quit. It was enough to try
any horse, for 12 1/2 seconds was the
time of the last furlong and there were
still three furlongs to go.

At the mile pole, which was reached
in 1:42 1/2, the leaders were still running
well in spite of the demands upon them
and willing to stand the drive which
was sure to come. Taral was the first